To Whom It May Concern:

As the pastor of Bob Colquhoun for the past five years, I have gained a healthy respect and admiration for this man who is solidly based in the "Word". As such, Bob is Bible-based and Christ-centered.

Bob has witnessed his faith in numerous ways, including: sharing some very powerful testimonies based on the Word during Worship and at youth gatherings; leading an Adult Study Class on the Holy Spirit and the intervention of God; being an integral part of the Worship Praise Team; and evangelizing the "man on the street".

Bob's sorted past qualifies him to empathize with the struggles of youth and adults alike while offering an open road of new beginnings. Bob can share with anyone how to find that open road, and then, "walk humbly with God" down that road.

I have never met a person more committed and more emphatic about his faith than Bob. He truly loves the Lord from the very core of his being; which has enabled him to lead many souls to the foot of the Cross and Jesus.

Bob has been blessed with God-ordained talents and is just bursting to share those talents with searching souls.

In Christ's Will,

To Whom It May Concern:

It's my pleasure to write this reference letter for Bob Colquhoun. I've known Bob since February, 2001. Several times he has come to Mission of Hope to lead worship. He's got a great voice, and as he sings, his passion for God is clearly visible. Plus, when he comes to the Mission, he is always eager to share his story. His words are "moving" as he talks about how the Lord has changed his life. In these past seven years, I have witnessed Bob's deep commitment to serve God, his obedience to want to do all that he has been created to do. Bob is a delightful young man, very personable, and genuine. Although he has many qualities, what I admire most about him is his enthusiasm for his Creator. It is contagious and an inspiration to many.

Respectfully,

Re: Bobby Colquhoun and MHCOFY Ministries

It has been my pleasure to attend the testimony and singing of Mr. Colquhoun on 4 separate occasions and each time I come away convicted, challenged and motivated to really start living my faith!

Bobby makes it so real in understanding what it means to be “in love” with Jesus and live your life “sold out” for Him.

His story should be heard by everyone, but especially young people in middle school thru high school. When they see and hear the passion he exudes the message becomes so real that many of them will find the strength to say “no” against peer pressure to make bad decisions.

Bobby has been the “featured singer” at the beginning of our Good Friday Prayer Breakfast on two separate occasions. He has a gift of transforming the morning to one of worship and praise!

We hope to have him back again and highly recommend him for any occasion where Christ will be honored and glorified.

Dear Friends:

It is with great pleasure that I write to you encouraging your group or congregation to welcome Bob Colquhoun! I have known Bob Colquhoun for 6 years, but began to hear what God was doing in his life several years before that. As his Pastor for the past 3 years, I can confidently tell you that Bob's passion for Christ and the story that follows in testimony is something that you do not want to miss!

With carefree charm and a down to earth style of speaking, Bob willingly shares the story of being the youngest of three boys raised in a military family, and how his rebellious teen years led him down a road of poor choices and eventually, prison. Bob combines both his testimony and musical talent to show how the living God of the Universe met him right where he was, and changed his life forever.

At Christ Community, Bob has served on the Praise and Worship Team, led Bible studies, and mentors both adults and youth alike. His story speaks truth in to the lives of every generation, every socio-economic experience, and to believers and not yet believers. Using the universal language of music and friendship, God uses Bob Colquhoun to impact the Kingdom right here on earth.

I pray you are as encouraged by God's story of redemption and as blessed by the music of Bob Colquhoun as I have been.

With Confidence In Christ,

Pastor Becky High

To Whom It May Concern:

Hi, my name is Ken Graham and I am the pastoral assistant at the Center United Methodist Church.

I am writing to you on behalf of Bob Colquhoun. Bob has a passion for the Lord that has brought our paths together several years ago.

At the time Bob had recently been released from a federal prison in Florence Arizona. During his time in prison Bob gave his life to Jesus Christ, and as a result God has used Bob's gifts of music, spoken Word, and testimony to reach many others with the Gospel.

Bob's years of rebellion and drug use leading up to prison time serve now to be a powerful testimony and connection with the youth of today and adults as well. His life story parallels many today who struggle with who they are and their purpose in life.

Because Bob has "been there" many who would not ordinarily listen, find themselves drawn to Bob's story and passion and consequently find hope and promise in Jesus Christ.

Bob has come to speak to our youth group and Sunday morning worship services and both times we felt the Spirit move in powerful life changing ways.

I could go on and on about how God touches peoples lives through Bob, yet I think it best you hear and meet Bob for yourself, you will see a totally surrendered heart for God, a passion to share the Gospel, a passion to reach the lost, a passion to do God's will.

Bob has shared that God is calling him to expand the ministry, leading him to reach out through additional speaking engagements; if you find yourself as part of this vision, be blessed!

To Whom It May Concern:

It is my great privilege to write this reference for Bobby Colquhoun.

I have known Bobby for many years; we attended the same high school and we grew up in same the neighborhood. We renewed acquaintances in 2004 and I consider Bobby to be a friend and a precious brother in Christ.

Bobby has spoken at numerous local Eastern Iowa Fellowship of Christian Athletes events over the past three years and is one of the most dynamic, passionate and inspirational speakers in our area. He also is an outstanding musician, with a beautiful singing voice.

Bobby has a tremendous public speaking gift. His ability to connect with his audience is one of his greatest assets. He is a powerful story-teller and shares his testimony in a very eye-opening, impacting and creative fashion. Young people, in particular, are riveted by his honesty and very dramatic life story. His musical talent is a wonderful addition to his fine public speaking ability. His singing and speaking together make Bobby a very unique talent.

Bobby has the ability to motivate and excite audiences and causes people to think deeply about their actions and choices in life. Whether it is sharing a life-changing story about spending time in prison, his addiction to drugs and alcohol, or his struggles as a professional musician, Bobby captures people like few speakers I know.

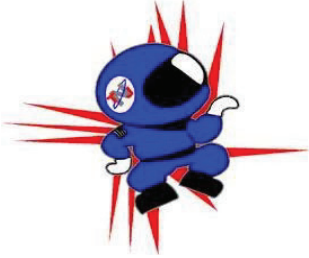

Bobby has shared at the FCA "One Way 2 Play" drug and alcohol free rally (a national drug and abstinence program) and impacted the lives of hundreds of middle and high school students (many of whom made commitments to stay drug and alcohol free). He has also shared at many other FCA events (such as lock-ins and huddle meetings) and has always made a big impact.

Finally, his love for the Lord and incredible testimony of how he was delivered from a life of crime and drugs is convicting and sobering. He is able to alter his message, depending on the situation, but his decision to follow Christ is extremely thought-provoking and inspirational. His messages, along with God-honoring music, has helped many people "cross the line of faith" and grow in understanding of God's purposes for their lives. I believe he is being used by God in a mighty way.

While there are aspects of Bobby's ministry that will no doubt continue to develop over time, I am pleased to offer my strong personal recommendation. Should I be able to provide further substantive comments, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

Carl Gonder

RE: Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern:

As the Lay Leader of my local church and Lay Delegate to our Church's Annual Conference, I personally want to testify to the fact that Bob Colquhoun is one of the most fascinating speakers I've heard when it comes to witnessing what God has done in his life. On every occasion I've heard him speak, he has touched people in a powerful way. He has an excellent understanding of what issues his audience is wrestling with and has the ability to communicate the consequences of wrong decisions while encouraging and inspiring them with the love and power of the Holy Spirit. Mixed with his message of hope, is his musical ministry that rivals season professionals. He has a powerful singing voice that is "spot on".

As a company (TJ Party Rentals), we have counted on Bob to participate in putting together local, regional, and state youth rallies and Christian music festivals. Together, we have been involved in many church revivals, Acquire the Fire, Youth Strike For Christ, Chrysalis, Walk to Emmaus, just to mention a few. He has never failed to deliver on what has been required. In fact, he has affected the lives of more young people than anyone else we have ever worked with. God is using him in a powerful way!

It is with great enthusiasm that I refer Bob Colquhoun to you or your organization. He is a great communicator who is passionate in his love for the Lord. It is his mission to reach out and touch the hearts of others (especially teens) and bring them into a more intimate relationship with Jesus Christ. I cannot recommend him more highly.

Sincerely Yours,

Jeff Anderson

To whom it may concern:

There are only a few times in life when you truly see someone go through change. I wholeheartedly believe that Bobby Calquhoun has been there. A few weeks ago Bobby came and spoke at John F. Kennedy High School's Fellowship of Christian Athletes 2nd annual Lock-in. He worked with a band named Happy Go Lovely to present his incredibly personal testimony to over 40 students and adults on the evening of March 6th, 2009. His life story, beginning in Cedar Rapids, IA and Washington High School and going through his adult years, is one that made an incredible impact with our students. Bobby has an amazing love for the Lord. His willingness to be wherever the message is needed, and share the grace and mercy of Jesus Christ with everyone possible is what drives his ministry. He is living proof that anyone can be forgiven and have real hope in life. His boldness for Christ is what the church needs, and this unapologetic missionary is being used to impact the world in ways that have eternal ramifications. I highly recommend Bobby Calquhoun and his ministry to anyone interested in real, genuine testimony that will impact all.

Sincerely,

Nathan O'Dell
